Specific Steps and Statements (9/12)
H. Norman Wright

This practical workshop focuses on what to say and what not to say, what to do and what not to do in ministering to those in grief and trauma. Demonstrations and verbatims will be presented to establish effective treatment approaches. We will also address the use of scripture and prayer as an integral part of the healing recovery process. Guidelines will be given to help churches become a healing agent in their community.

Participants will:

1. Be able to identify specific phrases and statements to use in helping others.
2. Discover the most effective approaches to help those in grief and trauma.
3. Be able to use scripture and prayer at the appropriate time in an appropriate way.
