

LOYOLA PRESS RESOURCES -

Start your own book club, by choosing your own book, with monthly or an alternating month discussion. Let books educate you. Resources such as Loyola Press can be (called customer service 1-800-621-1008.) They can tell you how discussion groups have flourished in other places and get you started on your own. Ask them questions that will meet your needs and enliven your faith. Call your program "ACT READS". Members can be divided into group or solo membership (read the book on their own, without going to discussion meetings.)